

Gun Safety.

It is true that Connecticut has some of the strongest gun safety laws in the country. But that doesn't mean the issue has gone away.

I was on the planning committee that created the March for Change. I am proud to be endorsed by Moms Demand Action, as a Candidate of Distinction.

There is more we can do.

I will work to pass legislation that keeps Ridgefield – indeed, every Connecticut city and town – safe from gun violence.