

Social Justice for Women.

I am a proud organizer of the Ridgefield Women's March, a group of 1,000+ women of every political persuasion – Democrat, Unaffiliated and Republican – who went to Washington DC to support equity, respect and equality for women.

I will work proudly with all women to battle the culture of disrespect, name calling and gender-bias that is infecting America and creeping into public arenas here in Connecticut.